> Re: Recommendation Letter on behalf of Michelle M. Sullivan, Judicial Opening, Yellowstone County District Court, Billings, Montana

Dear Ms. Slusser:

I am writing this letter personally on behalf of the application of Michelle M. Sullivan for the judicial opening to be vacated by the retirement of Hon. Michael G. Moses in Yellowstone County District Court, Billings, Montana.

Michelle was an associate for the law firm where I am still employed at as a legal assistant. She worked here from approximately April 2006 through March 2017. I can tell you that Michelle was great at her position, knew all aspects of the law, always met filing deadlines, etc. Even though Michelle had a busy schedule, she always took the time to explain to the legal assistants in the office regarding any questions we had on filing procedures or filing deadlines. We still to this day use the handout Michelle prepared for us when we calendar filing deadlines in state district courts.

I am writing personally hoping you will consider appointing Michelle Sullivan to this judicial vacancy. I feel that Michelle will bring a great deal of experience and fairness to all parties, if she was appointed to fill this judicial vacancy.

Thank you for considering my letter of recommendation.

Sincerely

Arlene S. Former

Regarding Nomination of Michelle Sullivan for Yellowstone County District Judge

My name is Brian Biggs, I have lived with my wife Janet in the Billings area for over thirty years. Michelle Sullivan has represented my ninety-five-year-old mother, Eileen Joy Biggs, for the past three years. Mother has lived with Janet and I for the past four years. Mom suffers from Alzheimer's / Vascular dementia and was swindled by a group of people in South Texas for approximately two hundred thousand dollars before she came to live with Janet and me.

Michelle has helped Mom and our family with a host of issues. A name change, guardianship issues, federal and state tax issues, and even criminal proceedings in a District Court in Brownsville, Texas. Michelle has appeared in the court of Judge Moses here in Yellowstone County to represent my mother on the name change and guardianship issues.

My only regret is that I wish I had the good fortune to meet and retain Michelle a year sooner. I am sure she would have saved me thousands of dollars and years of litigation time wasted with a half a dozen attorneys that did not have her competency, professionalism, skill, and sense of honor.

Michelle Sullivan would make a wonderful District Judge; she has the brains and scruples to serve the members of our community for years into the future.

Sincerely, Buggs

Re: Thirteenth Judicial District Vacancy

To whom it may concern:

I write in support of Michelle Sullivan's application for the judicial vacancy that will result from the retirement of Judge Moses in Yellowstone County. I have had the honor of practicing with Michelle throughout my entire legal career. When I worked at Holland & Hart LLP as an associate for seven years, Michelle was my colleague. She was also an exceptional mentor. Six years ago, Michelle and I both left that firm to start our own practice, Sullivan Miller Law PLLC. Although I am distressed at the thought of losing her as my law partner, I cannot imagine a lawyer more suited to be a judge.

During my first years practicing, Michelle was always available to help when I struggled with research, with practical application of rules, and with navigating big firm culture. If I needed advice, she made time for me. I saw her do the same with other young associates, paralegals, and legal assistants. She has always respected others in the workplace, and she shows the same respect to opposing counsel. Basic decency and kindness are often overlooked in this profession. Even in our more difficult cases, Michelle has never abandoned those values.

Michelle is also a stickler for the rules. If there is an obscure statute or rule of civil procedure that governs something, then Michelle usually knows it. I cannot count how many times I've come to her with a vague notion of rule that I'm certain should exist, only to have her inform me that it does exist and where it can be found. More importantly, if the Montana Constitution, statutes, or rules do not support an argument, then she is honest in her assessment. Michelle is not afraid to have hard conversations with clients when she does not believe a position is legally viable. She is a woman of strong integrity, and I truly believe that her personality is well suited to the judiciary. I would continue, but I will only hate myself later for facilitating her departure from my firm if she gets the appointment. Yellowstone County would be fortunate to have her as a district court judge, and I strongly support her application.

Sincerely,

Adrian A. Miller Sullivan Miller Law PLLC

To Whom it May Concern:

I am writing to express my profound support for Michelle Sullivan in her run for the Thirteenth Judicial District Judgeship opening.

I have known Ms.Sullivan for only two years, but in that amount of time I have developed the utmost admiration and respect for her. I think she is incredibly intelligent not only in her knowledge pertaining to legal issues, but also in regards to her common sense approach to justice. I feel that Ms. Sullivan always looks at the bigger picture and understands how to eloquently guide people through what could possibly be the most difficult time of their lives. Court proceedings can be overwhelming and stressful for anyone; especially people unfamiliar with the protocol of court. Ms. Sullian has been my source of assurance and support throughout the entire realm of emotions that legal proceedings will generate. I have entrusted her to represent me which she has done fairly and effectively.

Given the opportunity, I know Ms. Sullivan would not only be an asset to this community, but to the justice system as a whole.

Sincerely,

Mikel Cochran

To Whom It May Concern:

I write today, in support of Michelle Sullivan to be appointed as judge in the Thirteenth Judicial District.

She is smart and has a level head. I have watched our local bench go from three judges to eight. She will keep up with her workload and will not embed in her decisions, intellectual blunders, petty biases, or political ideology. She will be a thoughtful listener and a fearless decision maker.

I could chronicle for you how I know all of this, but I am sure you have plenty of letters to read, so I will keep it short. We have worked with and against each other on a wide assortment of claims. She's always top notch.

Dear Governor Gianforte:

I write to unequivocally support the appointment of Michelle Sullivan for the position of District Court Judge for the Thirteenth Judicial District. During my legal career, I have had the opportunity to work with Michelle whereby we have, in some instances, been aligned on the same issue, and in other instances, been adverse to one another. Michelle has always demonstrated the highest level of integrity and competence during these interactions.

Michelle can remain level-headed while zealously representing her clients. She possesses the uncanny ability to be the most reasonable person in the room, when needed, and also be the toughest litigator in the room, when needed. Simply stated, Michelle is a top-notch lawyer and her intelligence and skills will no doubt transfer to the bench and yield well-reasoned, independent and impartial decisions. Michelle is a hard-working, extremely intelligent attorney who would make an exceptional judge.

I write in strong support of Michelle Sullivan's application for the judicial vacancy in Yellowstone County.

I have looked up to Michelle as my mentor for the past several years. Michelle is not only a talented, sharp attorney, but also a genuine and kind person. She listens to those around her and has a great sense of humor. Michelle's personality in combination with her legal expertise makes her very well suited to serve as a district court judge.

To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing this letter in full and unwavering support of Michelle Sullivan's appointment as District Judge in the Montana Thirteenth Judicial District.

Within the last year, I had the privilege of observing Michelle during three days of depositions. It was a high-dollar case and the depositions involved nine other attorneys, some of whom were heavy-hitters. Michelle outshined all of them. She was analytical, smart, to the point, and quickly grasped every aspect of the case.

I have also worked with Michelle on other cases involving a variety of issues. I believe that her best quality may be that she tries to resolve cases. It is a trait I am finding lacking in far too many lawyers these days.

Thank you for time and attention.

Dear Ms. Slusser:

My name is Judith Hosford. I was a licensed insurance adjuster in Montana for 35 years, specializing in adjusting workers' compensation claims and lastly worked as the Claims Manager for Industrial Injury Claims/Midland Claims Service. I would like to offer a reference letter for Michelle Sullivan, one of the applicants for the vacancy in the Thirteenth Judicial District (Yellowstone County).

I was first introduced to this individual in 2017 when she was retained to defend claims for one of our largest accounts, the Montana Health Network. I was told she has been an attorney for 18 years but had not ventured over to the workers' compensation court yet. We worked together frequently. She always took into consideration the merits of each individual case, which was presented well in meetings, mediations, or the workers' compensation court. She was not beyond stating where the legal line was drawn to anybody if there was a question. Her work ethics are undeniable. Her legal competency was valued by our client, the plaintiff attorneys, and all who worked with her over the years. I had the pleasure of working with Michelle for 3 years until I retired in 2019.

I do feel that Yellowstone County, and the state of Montana, would be remiss if Michelle Sullivan was not appointed for the vacancy of the judgeship. She is a well rounded individual who is analytical and honest in her work endeavors and highly respected as an attorney of some 20 years in practice.

RE: Judicial Nomination of Michelle Sullivan

Dear Ms. Slusser

I am writing to recommend Michelle Sullivan for judge in the Thirteenth Judicial District Court.

Ms. Sullivan and I have worked on cases over the years; I have found Ms. Sullivan to be knowledgeable, personable, easy to work with and fair.

Ms. Sullivan has mediated family law cases for me; she does a great job explaining strong and weak positions to the parties. Ms. Sullivan understands that family law is difficult for all involved.

Beyond Ms. Sullivan's deep understanding of the law is her fairness. When working with Ms. Sullivan, I never got the sense that she was trying to game things to benefit her clients. Instead, because of her equitable nature, the facts of the case rise to the top so that the parties work better at resolving the issues.

Ms. Sullivan would be an asset in serving Montanans on the bench. Please appoint Ms. Sullivan to replace outgoing Judge Michael Moses.

RE: Thirteenth Judicial District Court Vacancy

Dear Governor Gianforte:

I am writing to lend my full support for the appointment of Michelle Sullivan to serve as District Court Judge in the Thirteenth Judicial District. I have practiced continuously in Bozeman since 1998. I have appeared in hearings and tried cases in numerous jurisdictions in Montana including the Sixth, Thirteenth and Eighteenth judicial districts.

I have known and worked professionally with Michelle Sullivan for three years. My knowledge of Michelle's abilities is based upon personal observations of her approach to the practice of law. Michelle possesses excellent skills in legal analysis and writing, and an ability to understand and distill complicated facts. She also demonstrates a unique ability to engage professionally and respectfully with opposing counsel, litigants and witnesses. Michelle is a positive person by nature, with a firm command of the law, which combined with her community service and communication skills, enhances her ability to reach a broad cross-section of parties and witnesses who may appear before the court in civil and criminal matters.

Michelle exceeds all of the personal qualities and professional requisites to serve with distinction and would be an excellent district court judge. If appointed, Michelle will serve the best interests of all citizens who appear before her court and the community and state in which she serves.

I highly recommend the appointment of Michelle Sullivan to serve as the next District Court Judge in Yellowstone County.

Re: Michelle M. Sullivan Letter of Recommendation

Dear Ms. Slusser:

I am writing in support of Michelle M. Sullivan in her application to fill the imminent vacancy in the Thirteenth Judicial District Court with the retirement of the Honorable Michael G. Moses.

I have had the opportunity to work extensively with Michelle for approximately the last 10 years. The types of matters have included estate/trust administration, guardianship/conservatorship, real estate and business disputes. In those matters, I have most often co-counseled with Michelle but on occasion she has been a court appointed fiduciary whose obligations and decisions may or may not be aligned with my client's preferred outcome.

Michelle's demeanor is the type that I appreciate in a district court judge. The first hope and expectation is that parties and legal counsel can resolve matters in good faith. If that fails, Michelle will be ready, willing and able to make a firm decision that objectively applies law to facts.

In addition to co-counseling with Michelle, I have referred numerous matters to Michelle. Michelle has never been interested in a perspective client's politics. Michelle is interested only whether the client has a legitimate legal need and whether the law provides that client with recourse.

With no disrespect intended to the other important types of law being practiced on a daily basis, we need more jurists that have Michelle's civil defense, probate/trust and transactional background. Frankly, Michelle's type of experience is badly needed at both the district court and Montana Supreme Court level.

Thank you for your consideration.

RE: Michelle M. Sullivan – Application for District Court Judge

Please consider this letter to you my recommendation of Michelle Sullivan for appointment as a District Court Judge in the Thirteenth Judicial District. I have had the pleasure of knowing Michelle since we attended law school together at the University of Montana School of Law. Michelle was an intellectual powerhouse in law school graduating at the top of her law school class in the year 2000. Following law school, I had the privilege of practicing against Michelle in private practice when she joined the firm of Holland and Hart in Billings, Montana.

I use the term privilege to describe Michelle as opposing counsel because she is a talented attorney, a consummate professional, and I have always been required to bring my A game when litigating with Michelle. Over the years, I have been impressed by Michelle's acute attention to detail and the thoroughness of her legal analysis and briefing. Michelle will work tirelessly on any cases before her and will treat each person before the Court with empathy and compassion, while also upholding and enforcing the law and doing what is necessary to keep the judicial process moving.

Michelle is well-versed in the nuances of the law and will be able to undertake her duties as a District Court Judge from day one. Michelle also has a strong work ethic grounded in her Eastern Montana upbringing. Finally, Michelle is respected among her fellow attorneys in the Bar, and I have no doubt this respect will extend to an appointed position on the bench.

For these reasons, Michelle Sullivan would be an excellent choice for appointment to the Thirteenth Judicial District Court: she has the intellect, work-ethic, and integrity to be a first-rate Judge. If selected, Michelle will be an invaluable addition to the Thirteenth Judicial District Court and to the Montana Bench.

Sincerely, Hegg. C. Com KELLY J. C. GALLINGER

Members of the Judicial Nomination Committee:

I submit this information in strong support of Michelle Sullivan to replace the Honorable Michael Moses in the Thirteenth Judicial District. She truly is one of the smartest people I have ever met and will translate that knowledge into a well rounded judge. We first crossed paths in 1998 when she was the teaching assistant for my contracts class in law school. We have remained friends ever since.

I believe she will bring an unbiased approach to the bench where she will decide the case based upon the law and not the politics of the day. If she were to personally disagree with a rule of law, she would still follow it.

Over the last 25 years we have kept in regular professional and personal contact. I have seen how she conducts herself with others and that is only at the highest level of professionalism.

Thank you, Christopher A. Morris Chief Deputy County Attorney Yellowstone County Governor Gianforte,

I am writing in enthusiastic support of Michelle Sullivan to fill the vacancy in the Thirteenth Judicial District (Yellowstone County). I have been opposing counsel and co-counsel with Michelle in several cases. I find her to be level-headed, even keeled, and practical. She is highly intelligent and diligent. She has excellent court-room presence and is a skilled legal writer. Michelle seems to relish putting the puzzle pieces together in contested matters. She has been generous with her time and knowledge when I have asked to run something by her as a solo attorney. These are all attributes that will make Michelle an excellent judge. I am certain she will be an asset to the judiciary and to Yellowstone County if selected to serve as District Court Judge.

To Whom It May Concern:

Please accept this e-mail as my strongest recommendation and nomination that you appoint Michelle Sullivan for the vacant judge position in Yellowstone County District Court. I have known Michelle Sullivan for several years. I have worked with her on two intense and complex cases. Michelle is extremely smart, thoughtful, and professional. Michelle is a practical problem solver. She is an excellent lawyer and will make an even better judge. She is fair and will follow the law to a "T." Ms. Sullivan will not create her own version of the law from the bench; she will interpret and apply the law as the law is intended to be applied.

Finally, Ms. Sullivan is a great human being who cares about her clients, colleagues, and even opponents. She treats people fairly and with respect. Michelle is extremely qualified. Please appoint her.

If you have questions or need more information about Ms. Sullivan, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Re: Michelle Sullivan, Applicant for District Judge Position (Thirteenth Judicial District)

To whom it may concern:

Michelle Sullivan is well qualified to assume the responsibilities of a district court judge. Her skills are evidenced by her list of accomplishments. She also possesses two essential qualities for a good judge: 1) she cares about people; 2) she cares about the law. Consequently, she can make difficult decisions, when necessary, to correctly apply the law with discernment and compassion.

I have known Michelle for several years. I am currently working with her on several difficult cases. Based on my observations, she has demonstrated an astute grasp of Montana law, a strong work ethic, and good moral character with a sincere desire to help people and advance the practice. Those are all great qualities for a judge.

Finally, as a trial attorney, I want a judge to know the rules of procedure and evidence. I want a judge who knows how to apply the rules to secure a just, speedy and inexpensive determination of a case. Michelle understands how to apply the rules of procedure and evidence. Her experience will serve everyone well in the Thirteenth Judicial District. I strongly recommend her for the position.

Sincerely,

RE: Letter of Support for Michelle Sullivan

Dear Governor Gianforte and Members of the Advisory Committee:

I am writing in support of Michelle Sullivan's candidacy for district court judge. I believe that she will be the best candidate to fill the upcoming vacancy in the Thirteenth Judicial District Court.

I have been practicing law in Montana since 1977. I started West Law Firm, P.C., in 1982 in Billings, Montana. During my career, I have practiced in front of many judges in the district courts and courts of limited jurisdiction in Montana. A judge must possess the necessary experience, wisdom, and temperament to effectively render judgment that is not only based in law but serves justice for the parties involved.

In my experiences knowing Michelle, I have found her to be competent, reasonable, and approachable. Our paths have crossed based upon representation of civil clients. I have found Michelle to be an appropriate adversary in representing her clients in our opposing cases.

My observation of Michelle is that she has the ability to see the "big picture." This type of thinking is paramount for the person sitting as a district court judge. Michelle has respect for the law and an analytical mind to determine what outcome serves not only the parties, while adhering to the best judicial standards, in the best way possible.

I believe that Michelle would serve our public well and provide a service that should be expected of a judge in the Thirteenth Judicial District. For the foregoing reasons, I believe that Michelle would be an excellent choice for district court judge. Thank you for your consideration.

Re: 13th Judicial District Court Vacancy

Dear Governor Gianforte:

I urge you to appoint Michelle Sullivan as District Judge for the 13th Judicial District Court. I know Michelle. I have worked with Michelle in the past, and am working with Michelle on an ongoing a complex family law case. Michelle is very knowledgeable and clearly focused on resolving issues – if possible by negotiation. In common parlance, she's not given to using "red tape" to make things more difficult to get to the end.

Beyond her extraordinary knowledge and technical skills as an attorney, two additional qualities stand out. First, she has a wonderful judicial temperament. Second, Michelle is a very good writer. Much of the credibility of our judicial system depends on judges being able to put their decisions in writing in a manner that is both understandable and persuasive. The ability to explain a decision involving the "legalese" of complex statutes and regulations is an art. Michelle's got this ability in spades.

Thank you.

RE: Letter of Support for Michelle Sullivan

Dear Governor Gianforte,

I am pleased to unequivocally recommend Michelle Sullivan to fill the position of District Court Judge for the Montana Thirteenth Judicial District.

I have known Michelle since 2000, when she began as a new attorney at my old law firm, Holland & Hart. I have always known Michelle to be a top-notch and highly intelligent lawyer with an admirable work ethic. Someone who is liked and admired by everyone she works with. Michelle is also unfailingly even-tempered, respectful and courteous to everyone she deals with. I also note that, since she started out in 2000, Michelle has had a varied legal career as both a big firm attorney representing business and as a small firm attorney representing individuals in a number of substantive areas, including family law. I believe that this breadth of experience makes Michelle ideal for the District Court.

I believe that Michelle Sullivan would be an excellent choice for District Court Judge and I whole-heartedly support her for that position.

Good Day,

Please accept this letter of recommendation for Michelle Sullivan appointment to the thirteenth judicial District court. My name is Robert Engle and I taught High School social studies at Forsyth Public Schools. It was my first year at Forsyth and I was introduced to Michelle Millhollin by a student in my class. Michelle was enrolled in the second senior Government class. Michelle was active in a number of class activities. She was in the school plays and Speech and Drama. She was definitely a leader in the senior class and in the school. In those days teachers applied grades on grade cards in the teacher lounge. As a new teacher in the school I asked other teachers about students I had in class and invariably I would ask "what do you think of Michelle Millhollin". Every staff member had glowing words to describe Michelle. Dedicated, driven, highly intelligent, a leader and respectful to classmates and adults. It was not a surprise when she was named Valedictorian of the senior class.

Of course I was happy to learn she was going to attend the University of Montana, my alma mater, class of 1977. Is it no surprise that she graduated number one in her law class the second one to do so from Forsyth. The first was Walter Dean Jr., who graduated number one in the law class of 1937. She did not stop there. Michelle continued her higher education attending Montana State earning a MBA degree, and no surprise ranked number one that class as well. Michelle entered into a private law practice and again is it no surprise she has become a very successful attorney.

Michelle is highly qualified for the thirteenth judicial district judge position. With over twenty five years practicing law she has valuable experience, the type of experience needed for this honored position in our judicial system.

Being a district judge has its challenges and is one of the most important appointment duties of the governor. There is no doubt that she is up for this challenge and will apply the laws of the state judiciously and fairly.

Respectfully,

Robert Engle Former teacher 39 years in public education

Ms. Slusser,

As the application process wraps up related to the pending vacancy in the Thirteenth Judicial District, I strongly encourage you to consider Michelle Sullivan. Mrs. Sullivan's career is marked with deep experience in representing individuals, businesses and municipalities in a myriad of legal proceedings, giving her the valuable experience needed to best serve the Thirteenth Judicial District.

I am most encouraged about Mrs Sullivan's record in prioritizing the law and upholding the constitution over promoting partisan politics, something the vast majority of Montanans I know feel is badly needed at the moment.

Thank you for your work in moving this process along, please feel free to reach out if you have any additional questions.

Sincerely,

RE: Submission of Support for the appointment of Michelle Sullivan to The District Judge vacancy in the 13th Judicial District

Dear Hannah:

I wish to submit my support for the appointment of Michelle Sullivan to The District Judge vacancy in the 13th Judicial District.

Michelle is a Rosebud County native, educated through the Forsyth Public school system. Her hard work and determination led to her being the top of her Law School Class. Anyone who has graduated from The University of Montana Law School recognizes the quality of work, and determination required to reach that accomplishment.

The City of Colstrip received great assistance from Michelle over the last several years, in dealing with the challenges Colstrip has been facing. I am in complete agreement with the comments in the other recommendations such as those by Mark Parker about Michelle's personal qualities.

The Judiciary in Yellowstone County faces great challenges, and Michelle is qualified, capable, and up to those challenges.

Re: Michelle Sullivan – District Court Vacancy

To whom it may concern:

Please accept this letter as my endorsement of Michelle Sullivan for the District Court Judge position which is coming open in the Thirteenth Judicial District.

I have known Michelle for most of the 20+ years that she has practiced law in Billings. I have had occasion to work with her over the years and uniformly found her work to be of the highest quality and, just as important, she has always been a fair and reasonable lawyer to work with.

My practice has focused on commercial litigation and employment law, representing almost exclusively businesses, including many of Montana's largest companies. Ms. Sullivan has done similar work as a significant part of her practice, giving her a perspective which is somewhat rare among Montana's district court judges. This perspective should be represented on the bench.

Of equal importance is the time she has spent on family law and probate matters. These issues occupy a significant portion of the dockets of every district court judge in Montana, and I have every confidence that she will handle these matters fairly and expeditiously.

Please give Michelle your most careful consideration and then give her the job.

Very truly yours, John G. Crist

RE: Judicial Nomination Michelle Sullivan, 13th Judicial District

Ms. Slusser and Nominating Committee Members:

I have had the privilege of knowing and working with Michelle Sullivan throughout the course of our lifetimes. Having known her for such a long duration, I am not surprised to be writing this letter of support as she seeks appointment to the bench.

Michelle is an incredibly intelligent person who has proven herself throughout the years to be very focused, hardworking, reliable, extremely thoughtful and always very well prepared. I have seen her excel at everything she has put her mind to from a very early age on.

In addition to our time spent together through our childhood and college years, I have also had the great opportunity to work with Michelle on several occasions in her capacity as an attorney. While I served as the director of a judicial advocacy non-profit in Billings, Michelle donated pro bono time to our organization providing legal services regarding employment law, contract law and other matters.

Later when I became a business owner, Michelle was retained and worked on property matters, corporation matters and personal estate matters for myself and my spouse. On numerous occasions I have experienced meeting with Michelle regarding a matter on which I had questions, then coming back for a second meeting to have her present the current case law along with suggestions and next steps.

During my prior 13 years working in the legal field, I had the opportunity to work with many attorneys and judges covering a variety of legal cases while also meeting a wide variety of personalities. I have spent a significant amount of time in the courtroom working with individuals who are experiencing the worst days of their life. I have seen, first hand, how a client's motivation to invest themselves in the decisions and sometimes the services offered through the court is often shaped by their view of the judge sitting on the bench. When taking these factors into consideration, I am convinced Michelle will excel as a judge.

For all the reasons stated above Michelle is a great attorney, but being a great judge requires having a temperament that is suited to the work. Michelle is one of those individuals who possesses a balance in her life. She has an incredible intellect and a good sense of humor, is organized in thought and is empathetic and yet she is someone you can expect will be fair and even firm. Throughout our years together we have not always seen eye to eye, but she has always been the first person you wanted to work alongside and I have never once doubted her honesty.

This public comment is not meant to serve as a colleague's review of her past legal work but as the letter I hope that will tell you who she is as a person. Michelle is the person you want making the hard decisions. She is the one who will elevate those around her and will serve honorably during her time on the bench.

Thank you for taking the time to review and consider my remarks.

Sincerely,

Dear Governor Gianforte:

I write to express my support for Michelle Sullivan's candidacy for appointment to the vacant position of District Court Judge of the Thirteenth Judicial District, Yellowstone County. I have known Michelle for more than two decades, and I have worked directly with her as a colleague much of that time.

I believe Michelle would make a great judge. She is intelligent, hard-working, and fair. She has a well-rounded litigation background that makes her suitable for a judicial role. I trust her to make timely decisions based on the facts and the law, and she would do so in a professional and courteous manner. Yellowstone County would benefit greatly from Michelle's experience and talents.
